

This is a reproduction of a historic page to commemorate The News-Sentinel's 175th anniversary.

ALLEN COUNTY
CENTENNIAL EDITION

The News-Sentinel

ALLEN COUNTY
CENTENNIAL EDITION

FORT WAYNE, IND., THURSDAY EVENING DECEMBER 11, 1924.

ALLEN COUNTY

1824

1924

CENTENNIAL NUMBER

Allen County's Observance of its
One Hundredth Birthday

"The Call of the Rivers"

MAJESTIC THEATRE

December 11th, 12th and 13th

Evenings—8:15 Saturday Matinee—2:30

The PROGRAM

Prologue.

The curtain rises on an intimate home scene revealing a mother and two children. The mother has finished telling the story of the Indians who followed the courses of the St. Mary's, the St. Joseph and the Maumee and built their village at the joining place. The imagination of the children is enlivened as they plead with their mother to relate to them the story which we are pleased to name, "The Call of the Rivers."

Episode 1.
Primitive America.

Episode 2.
The coming of Vincennes in 1699.

Episode 3.
The Fall of the French Post in 1760 and the Capture of the English Garrison.

Episode 4.

Life in Kekionga and the Coming of Harmar's Army in 1790.

Episode 5.

The Dedication of Fort Wayne, October 22, 1794.

Episode 6.

The Beginning of the Town of Fort Wayne, September 18, 1824.

Episode 7.

The Great Canal Celebration, July 4, 1843.

Episode 8.

Camp Allen, 1861.

Episode 9.

The World War in 1917.

Episode 10.

"The Story Comes True.

