

FEB. 5, 2007

This is a reproduction of a historic page to commemorate The News-Sentinel's 175th anniversary.

MONDAY AFTERNOON

First Edition
Newsstand: 50¢
Delivered: 27¢

The News-Sentinel

www.news-sentinel.com

FEBRUARY 5, 2007

Fort Wayne, Indiana

COLTS | 29

BEARS | 17

FINALLY!

COVERAGE OF COLTS' SUPER BOWL WIN, INCLUDING PHOTO PAGE, IN SPORTS

By McCardy-DeBora

Finally winning the big one, Indianapolis Colts coach Tony Dungy is carried off the field after the Colts' 29-17 victory over the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XLII in Miami on Sunday.

It's tough to win Super Bowls. We didn't get there our first four years, but I was proud of our guys then. But I think we

I think the disappointments you have along the way make it feel that much better when you finally do accomplish it. I came in as a

Colts fan Dan Nay, right, tries and fails to get a high-five from Bears fan Micah Kuhn after the Bears' Rex Grossman fumbled a snap. Nay, Kuhn and a few of their friends watched Super Bowl XLII at